Lafayette Crowd is Enthusiastic in Cheering Condemnation of Adamson Law

By PERRY ARNOLD
(U. P. Staff Correspondent.)

Delphi, Ind., Sept. 21.—At least one thousand persons got a new bit of attack on the Democrats from Republican Nominee Hughes here
today.

"As I was going through Lafayette," he said, "I saw a campaign placard which had been put up by our friends of the other side and which bore the statement, 'No idle men. Plenty of work. A full dinner pail.' I thought what an extraordinary tribute to the memories of American voters. How was it in 1914 and the early part of 1915 after the passage of the Underwood bill? Were there then full dinner pails? Why there were 300,000 unemployed men in the city of New York alone!"

(By United Press.)

Lafayette, Ind., Sept. 21.—Seven thousand people packed the streets in front of the Lincoln club here today to hear Republican Nominee Hughes expound the doctrine of protection in tariff and labor. It was the second Indiana crowd the governor had met today. At 8:30 he arose to speak to several hundred at Monon who gave him a loud welcome to the Hoosier state.

The nominee's voice was just a trifle hoarse today after the exertions of yesterday's campaigning in Wisconsin and he prefaced his speeches with the explanation that he would have to save his voice all he could.

"We want to prepare for our own peace and security," he said at Monon. "We want to protect American labor and American standards of living. We want to use our governmental power in adjusting our tariff so that we can keep our factories running on full time. We want a busy people—a contented people. We want a basis for social justice—we want to recognize the demands of labor that are just and reasonable. We want proper conditions of work at reasonable hours, but we can not have any of these
unless we have stability and prosperity in the country. You can not have stability and prosperity unless American products are protected against competition of products which are made by men who are paid much less wages than the wages that are paid here. That is common sense. And in order that we should properly secure our prosperity, we must attend to the protection of American working men."

Here at Lafayette the crowd was particularly enthusiastic in cheering Hughes' criticism of the Adamson eight-hour law and again when he demanded equal recognition of

HUGHES STARTS INDIANA TOUR

Republican Nominee For President
Begins Swing Through Hoosier
State For Republicans.

IS AT RICHMOND TONIGHT

First Stop at Monon This Morning at 8:30—Fort Wayne Meeting
a Big One.

(By United Press.)

Indianapolis, Ind., Sept. 21.—
Charles E. Hughes, Republican nominee for president, entered Indiana, the chief battle ground of the campaign, today, resolved to do his part in an attempt to swing the Hoosier state into the Republican fold.

Speaking first at Monon at 8:30
a. m., the candidate spoke in turn
at Lafayette, Delphi, Loganport, Peru, Wabash, and Huntington. At 3:15 p. m. he was to speak at Ft.
Wayne from which city he was to start southward, taking in Decatur, Portland, Winchester, and making his final speech of the day at Richmond at 8 o'clock tonight.

The meeting of Ft. Wayne was expected to be the largest meeting of the day, though the ones at Loganport, Lafayette and Wabash
today were of the most enthusiastic variety. The rally at Richmond tonight attended by both Hoosier and Buckeyes, is expected to fill to overflowing that city's large Coliseum.
At Ft. Wayne the Governor was to speak at the New Palace theater, an open air affair having been abandoned because of the weather risk.
Because of the short stay in Fort Wayne no auto parade was to be attempted, but it was planned to rush
the candidate to the theater at top speed. An overflow meeting will be addressed at the Pennsylvania station in Fort Wayne.

At Richmond tonight the candidate will be in the county which polled the biggest progressive vote four years ago and the only one represented by a progressive in the last session of the state legislature.
Plans have been made there to make this the largest political rally the county has ever had in an attempt to prove that the progressive stronghold can onto rockribbed republican cities in welcoming the republican candidate.

American rights as to lives, property and commerce from all nations.

His speech followed the same general lines of previous addresses. After his speech here the candidate shook hands at an improvised reception, standing at one door while Mrs.
Hughes stood and shook hands at the other door.

Hughes was in fine fettle, patting babies on the cheek and otherwise making himself "solid."

The Rev. D. Ira Lambert, who has just returned from Cincinnati where he was called on account of the serious illness of his wife, reports that she is much better and considered to be out of danger.

J. B. Smelser has sold his eighty-acre farm northeast of Rushville to Clifford Travis of near Henderson
for $140 an acre.

—Miss Margaret Doyle has returned from an extended visit in Connerville.

STRIKE GROWING SERIOUS

Walkout of 500,000 Workers in New York May be Ordered Tomorrow.

(By United Press.)

New York, Sept. 21.—New York's protracted traction strike situation
entered a serious phase today.

The last day which the labor leaders have allotted the traction companies to accept the proposals of Mayor Mitchell for further negotiations, was ushered in with increasing violence and with no sign of wavering by either side. Unless their demands are met union organizers are prepared to call tomorrow for the greatest walkout in the history of the city, a sympathetic strike of 500,000 men.

WILL DETERMINE NUMBER TO ATTEND

Uniform Rank, K. of P. Will Meet Tonight to Make Arrangements for Encampment

The Uniform Rank, Knights of Pythias will meet tonight at which time it will be determined how many
from the local company will participate in the fraternal day celebration to be held in Indianapolis in connection with the state centennial.
It is likely that thirty-five or forty members from the company here will go to Indianapolis.

Under the arrangements, the uniform rank companies will establish camp at the state fair grounds on Saturday evening, September 30.
The encampment would continue
Saturday night, Sunday and Monday. The celebration will take place on Monday. Sunday dinner and supper and Monday breakfast will be served on the grounds free
and cots will be given free.

Harry Flodder and Elmer Hite Are Given Suspended Sentences in Indianapolis.

SURE THEY COULD BEAT CASE

What was virtually an acquittal for the two Rushville boys who were alleged to be implicated in the Davis gang of automobile thieves was the suspension of sentence given Harry Flodder and Elmer Hite yesterday afternoon by Judge Collins in the Marion county criminal court in Indianapolis.

Rush county people are familiar with the activities of the Davis gang, some members of which have already been sentenced to prison. The two Rushville boys have stoutly asserted from the first that they were not guilty though they were familiar with the methods used.

An agreement was reported to have been reached whereby Hite and Flodder were given suspended sentences. They were both convinced that they could win the case, but by the action that was taken the costs of a trial were saved.

POLIO CASES DEVELOP

(By United Press.)

Adrian, Mich., Sept. 21.—The Adrian public schools were ordered closed today until Oct. 2 by the school board. Presence of several cases of infantile paralysis caused the action.

Fred Bell of Union township sold pound with an average of 284

pounds.

LYNCHES CONVICTED MAN

Mob at Olathe, Kan., Takes Mur-derer From Jail

Olathe, Kan., Sept. 21.—Storming
the jail, fifty armed men lynched Bert Dudley, avenging the brutal murder of Mr. and Mrs. Henry Miller, for which he was convicted Tuesday.

The mob aroused Sheriff Carroll about midnight and demanded that Dudley be released to them. The sheriff refused.

"Better let us have him," said the leader, "we are prepared to take him."

The men cut loose with a volley of

Delegation Will go Richmond in Machines Tonight to Hear
Hughes Speak

MANY GOING TO INDIANAPOLIS

A delegation of local Republicans
composed of John Kiplinger, Judge
Will M. Sparks, John Tittsworth,
Charles A. Frazee, Jesse Pugh and Albert L. Winship will go to Richmond tonight for the Hughes meeting.

Judge D. W. Comstock will preside at the meeting and after a brief address will introduce James Bingham, former attorney general of Indiana, who will entertain the crowd until the arrival of Mr. Hughes.

The Hughes special train is due
in Richmond at 8:25 o'clock and it will be taken immediately to the coliseum for his address.

Many local republicans will go to Indianapolis Saturday night for the Hughes meeting.

SEVERAL CASES ARE DISPOSED OF

Suit Which Was Outgrowth of Paying Second Street Dismissed
and Costs Paid.

SURETY CO. GETS JUDGMENT

Several suits were disposed of in circuit court today. The case of
Estes V. Bergen and Everett E.
Jeffery against Melvina Shropshire
to foreclose an assessment was dismissed and the costs paid. This was one of ten suits growing out of the paving of West Second street last summer. The property owners did not pay the assessments and the construction company filed suit to collect.

Judge Sparks heard the divorce suit of Dora E. Carpenter against Owen Carpenter this morning and took the case under advisement.
Mrs. Carpenter alleged cruel and inhuman treatment.

Judgment for $70.21 was rendered against Samuel H. Colter in favor of the Equitable Surety company. The defendant defaulted. The case of
John A. Knecht and Edmund Gartin against S. H. Colter, on a note demanding $350 was dismissed and the costs paid.

prisoners, it was officially announced today.

QUEEN VOTES ARE PLACED ON SALE

They May be Purchased at Any Store and Will be Given Away
by Some Merchants

Another Free Attraction is Obtained
—Baby and Doll Parade

Votes for the Centennial Queen
were placed on sale today at practically all of the stores in the business district.

About two weeks remain for the voting and there should be some keen competition because of the prize of fifty dollars which is offered. Twenty-five dollars in gold goes to the girl who is crowned queen and fifteen dollars to the one having the second highest number of votes. The third prize is ten dollars.

A majority of the merchants will give one vote with each cash purchase of twenty-cents. Those who are interested in the contest and have already picked their favorites
are expected to ask for the votes.
They may be purchased at any store for a fourth of a cent each. The votes are printed in different values as high as a dollar.

A. Bogue, chairman of the executive committee, and Walter Easley, chairman of the concessions committee, obtained another free attraction at Indianapolis yesterday, making three in all which have been arranged for.

The one obtained yesterday was McElroy and Bernado's "Troubles in Crownland." It is a silent comedy act of unusual merit. The committee from here saw it and declare it to be of exceptional merit. The attraction is termed a trick house act.

The committee has been announced for the baby and doll parade on Tuesday afternoon of the Centennial Home Coming and Fall Festival, which will take place the week of October 9. Mrs. Owen Kincaid is chairman of the committee, and the remainder have been named as follows:

Mrs. Douglas Morris, Mrs. F. G.
Hackleman, Mrs. John Kiplinger,
Mrs. Rich Reed, Mrs. Clarence
Cross, Mrs. Lewis M. Sexton, Miss Henrietta Coleman and Mrs. Harry Armstrong.

The committee will meet in the court house next Saturday afternoon at three o'clock and all women interested in the parade are asked to be present at that time. Prizes amounting to $17.50 will be awarded in the baby parade and the prizes in the doll parade total $8.50.

Plans were hurried along today
so as to get the decorative arches up in the next few days. They will be covered with muslin and elaborately decorated. The earlier plan to decorate the arches with corn had to be abandoned because
the early frost put the corn in such condition that it could not be used.

Damage is Done to Roof of George
Anderson's House

The home of George Anderson, colored, in East Seventh street was partially destroyed by fire last night at nine-thirty o'clock. The fire was caused by a defective flue and for the most part was confined to the roof. The fire was very stubborn and gave the department considerable trouble. There was no insurance and the loss is small because the house was not very valuable. It was the second run of the day for the fire department.

SAYS GOODRICH HAS WRONG DOPE

J. A. M. Adair Declares Local Men are Insulted by Opponent's

Democratic Candidate for Governor Makes Appeal for the Progressive Vote

John A. M. Adair, Democratic candidate for governor, in his address last night closing his day's campaign in this county, made a plea for the Progressive vote, branded the Republican charge of extravagance in state affairs as false and asked for support for President Wilson. A crowd of 800
or 1,000 people heard the candidate.

During the course of his remarks
Mr. Adair took occasion to poke fun at James E. Watson and point out two local men, Joseph L. Cowing and Rush G. Budd, whom claimed have been insulted by James G.
Goodrich, Republican candidate for governor, in charging waste in the administration of state institutions.
Mr. Cowing is a member of the board of trustees of the East Indian asylum and Mr. Budd is a member of the board of trustees of the Epileptic Village at Newcastle. In referring to Mr. Budd, Mr. Adair had to ask his name. From all indications this part of his speech had been framed by some local

In opening his address he told of his many victories in the Eighth district while running for congress and declared that it was only natural he should feel kindly towards Republicans because they were largely instrumental in securing his election since the Eighth district is normally Republican. The first part of his speech was devoted to Progressives. He told of the trouble in the Republican party and why there was a Progressive party.

"We Democrats have passed practically every law the Progressive demanded," said Mr. Adair. "We have given you all the legislation that you were unable to get under the Republicans. To be consistent you Progressives can do either of two things—vote the Progressive ticket or the Democrat ticket. I do not see how you can go back to the Republican party where they have the same leaders as in 1912 and stand for the same things now as then."

"Let us lay aside our partisanship and look at this thing together. How did the Democratic party get into power? The party was always considered a minority party and it was through the help of the Republicans
that we got into power."

"At this time he took occasion to "rap" the so called "interests," declaring that the Democrats still believed in equal rights for all and special privilege for none.

"Here in Indiana we have been in power eight years," he said. "It is the rule that you never hear people talk about anything that is good.
For this reason you have never heard anyone say anything about the administration of Governor Raston. Even the keynote speech of Judge Quincy Myers failed to mention the Ralston administration, showing that the Republicans themselves had heard nothing bad concerning it. When did you ever find a state administration so good that no one can criticize it?"

"They are now going about the state changing extravagance and waste, which charge I brand as false
and untrue. They are so eager to hold office that they go crying about the state trying to make the people believe a pack of lies. My opponent, Mr. Goodrich, has charged

Amusements

The Gem will show the first chapter of the Pathe serial, "Who's Guilty?" for the first picture tonight. This episode is entitled "The Silent Shame." The series is composed of fourteen gripping episodes and each tells a complete story. The second picture tonight is a comedy "Giving Them Fits." The last is a picture of current events as shown in "Pathe News." Tomorrow the five act drama "Two Men of Sand Bar" will be shown. It is taken from Bret Harte's famous novel of the same name and is said to be a hard-hitting picture.

The Mystic offers the two reel drama "The Stander" for the first picture of tonight's program. The second is a western drama "The Higher Voice." Florence Lawrence is featured in this one. The last is a comedy entitled "Little Grains of Rice." Tomorrow, matinee and night the comedy "Mary's Lamb" in which Richard Carle is featured will be shown. It is said to be a fine comedy and was reproduced from the stage play of the same name in which Mr. Carle appeared for several seasons.

The Princess offers the next chapter of "Gloria's Romance" for the first picture tonight. Miss Billie Burke is featured as usual. The second picture is a drama of mil-

extravagance in the conduct of state institutions when he well knows that the boards of these institutions are conducted by nonpartisan members. He has insulted both the Republican and Democratic members of these boards. Your fellow citizen Joseph L. Cowing, a member of the board at East Haven, is included in this list. Did you ever hear of Joseph L. Cowing being extravagant in the conduct of his own business affairs or does Mr. Cowing live an extravagant life here in Rushville where you all know him? There is yet another one of your citizens who has been insulted by Mr. Goodrich. I refer to Rush G. Budd, a member of the board of trustees at the Epileptic Village. You know Mr. Budd, as you know Mr. Cowing and you can be the judge.

"I want to be the next governor of Indiana, but if I have to go over the state misrepresenting these things I will never be governor. I repeat there has been no waste or extravagance in the conduct of the state's affair. We admit that we created more offices because we have executed legislation that the people were demanding."

From this brief discourse of state issues, Mr. Adair jumped to national issues. He had a word of praise for President Wilson and declared that he has kept us at peace. He declared that the "hope of the world and the hope of Democracy is resting on America and in Woodrow Wilson that hope will be realized."

Mr. Adair then told of the passage of his pension law giving the old soldiers a dollar a day pension and told of other legislation passed by the Democrats. In touching on present conditions Mr. Adair said:

"It was said that we would close the factories and throw men out of work by the passage by our tariff law. Instead of that you have the greatest prosperity in the history of the country. But my good friend Watson says, 'wait until the war is over.' With only old men and boys left in Europe why should we not continue our present prosperity after the war."

"Did you ever hear Jim Watson make a Fourth of July speech? If you never did you get him to give one here and I will come down. He can give the best Fourth of July speech I ever heard. His Fourth of July speeches are simply great. In them we have the greatest country on earth. But now that a campaign is on my friend paints a vivid picture. I might believe his Fourth of July speeches, but just before election I would not like to say what I think of them. The Republicans have no issue and no candidate who can appeal to the people."

The speaker then up held President Wilson's Mexican policy and European policies. Reference was made to the passage of the currency law and other Democratic measures. Mr. Adair was introduced by Howard E. Barrett.

SEPTEMBER MORN.

Hammond, Ind., Sept. 21. A woman, a la September morn, was hanging her washing on a line to dry. She was sighted by neighbors and a policeman was called. He started to tell her what to do. Wrapping a sheet about her person, she defied. With many blushes, he ordered her to go into the house and she complied.

in clothes for men and young men

There is that about "High Art Clothes" which takes them out of the dull monotony of the "just clothes" class and gives them a personality of their own.

Their designer follows no precedents other than good taste and the "High Art" models for Fall and Winter testify to his ability to put life into his designs.

These clothes will make you a better dressed man—and at their price they challenge the field.

Escape TOOTH Troubles

—by keeping your teeth REALLY CLEAN.

"But," you say, "I brush my teeth regularly, yet they decay." Yes, you brush them, but do you REALLY CLEAN them? Tonight, after brushing your teeth, examine them closely. You will likely find an accumulation of tartar on the enamel and bits of food deposit hiding in the crevices.

Decay, as well as the dangerous gum disease called Pyorrhea, usually develops only in the mouth where germ-laden tartar is present. SENRECO, the formula of a dental specialist, keeps the teeth REALLY CLEAN. It embodies specially prepared soluble granules unusually effective in cleaning away food deposits. Moreover, it is particularly destructive to the germ of Pyorrhea.

Go to your dealer today and get a tube of Senreco—keep your teeth REALLY CLEAN and protect yourself against Pyorrhea and decay. Send 4c to Senreco, 304 Walnut St., Cincinnati, Ohio, for liberal-sized trial package.

Theodore Roosevelt has made public a letter written by him to Henry Reuter, the expert on naval affairs, in which Mr. Roosevelt declares that Reuter has made it perfectly plain that Admiral Mayo advised President Wilson and Secretary Daniels of the peril to which Americans were exposed in Tampico and that, with full knowledge of this peril, Messrs. Wilson and Daniels peremptorily instructed Mayo to withdraw, leaving American men, women and children to their fate; that Mayo put out to sea, and then received the emphatic protest of the American consul and refused to proceed but that the President and Daniels were insistent; that Mayo was then advised by the Captain of a British ship that it was too late and that his return would aggravate the situation and that the Americans were rescued from the Mexican mob by the British and German naval ships. "You have made your case perfectly clear," writes Mr. Roosevelt. "As you say in your letter, you have furnished complete proof that when the Americans were in danger at Tampico they were deliberately abandoned by the orders of Mr. Wilson and that their lives were saved under foreign flags. By no possibility can President Wilson and Secretary Daniels clear themselves from guilt in the transaction. The facts are indisputable." Washington dispatches, referring to Mr. Roosevelt's letter, say that each of the many excuses which have been made by Daniels is absurd, according to naval experts, and that the real reason Mayo's ship was ordered away was that Mr. Wilson feared their presence at Tampico would irritate the Mexicans.

"Pitiless Publicity."

Before he was elected, Woodrow Wilson announced that his administration would be characterized by "pitiless publicity." Since his inauguration even normal publicity has given place to political expediency. The latest instance of this is the absolute refusal of the War Department to reveal the facts regarding the attack on San Ignacio, Tex., by Mexican troops, presumably Carranzistas. Army officers at the Department explain that they are under pre-emptory orders not to disclose the facts and, as everyone knows, those orders come from President Wilson himself. The official report of the affair, as made by the Carranzista general to his headquarters, has been published in the Mexican press. It declares that the Americans, of the Ninth Regiment were routed by a combined attack of cavalry, approaching from the West, and infantry, from the South, that there was furious fighting for two hours, when the Americans were "compelled to fly." He concludes: "On the field were abandoned great numbers of dead and wounded and an immense booty, consisting of 150 rifles, 3,000 cartridges, horses, saddles, munitions of war and provisions." The Wilson administration successfully suppressed the facts regarding this encounter until the Mexicans made them public. Of course the purpose of Mr. Wilson is to prevent the public from appreciating the truly farcical nature of the Conference he is conducting at New London, and the futility of looking to Carranza for protection of the Mexican border.

Some people are always happy, some are constitutionally miserable, while others have a difficult time deciding which they prefer.

A change of beverage from time to time is enjoyable and beneficial as well.

The flavor of our Coffee is proverbial. We especially recommend our San Marto brand; we believe it is the best 30 cent coffee to be found anywhere. Our Vacuum Improved Coffee is the kind you can drink when other coffee don't agree with you. All injurious parts are removed by the vacuum process—two grades, 35c and 45c per pound. We have Coffee as low as 15c per pound.

In our Royal Garden Teas you will find a suggestion of oriental flavor and fragrance. All varieties in three grades—60c, 80c and $1.00 per pound.

There is health in every cup of Cocoa or Chocolate. Children thrive on them because they are nourishing; grown folks like them because of their delicate flavor.

We watch with great care the quality of our Coffee, Tea and Cocoa. Purer goods than we sell cannot be had.

Like those hot biscuits on Sunday night—they satisfy!

"Please pass the biscuits." And as those hot, crisp morsels melt in your mouth, they certainly do taste good. Best of all—they satisfy. Just what Chesterfields do for your smoking—they satisfy!

But, Chesterfields are MILD, too!

For the first time in cigarette history, you are offered a cigarette that satisfies, and yet is mild. Chesterfield!

Smokers realize that this is new enjoyment for a cigarette to give. And no other cigarette can give it to them—because no cigarette maker can copy the Chesterfield blend!

BRITTON SEEMS TO HAVE CLASS

Claimant of Welterweight Title Appears to be the Real Leader of This Division.

RECENTLY BEAT JOE WELLING

Plenty of Action Promised For Coming Winter—Now Hard to Get Opponents For Him.

BY HAMILTON.

New York, Sept. 21.—Since Jack Britton has laid claim to the welterweight title, so long left to be scrambled for, the class seems to have a worthy ruler for the first time since it was vacated by Jimmy Clabby when he graduated into the middleweight ranks.

Britton's most recent, victory in which he gave Joe Welling of Chicago a beating at Buffalo, was called by critics at the ringside. Britton's most brilliant performance. They predicted for him the most successful season of his career and already Dan Morgan has arranged a number of bouts for his champion.

Britton for a long time was a stumbling block in the path of aspiring lightweights and when he announced some time ago he had stepped into the welterweight class there was a revival of interest in the 142-pounders. Immediately opponents were dug up for him. Ted Lewis, the British whirlwind, is the only boxer who has defeated Britton in that time, but Britton promises to wipe out that stain if he is given a chance this winter. Lewis twice won from Britton on points last winter.

Lewis, undoubtedly, is the only boxer of any reputation in the welter class who has a chance with Britton, unless one admits that Willie Ritchie means to try a comeback. Out west they have a young Mexican Jack Torres who has proved a great fighter, but he hasn't shown the fighting heart and until he does there is little prospect that he will get a chance.

With Britton riding at the head of the welters the winter promises to see some action in the class so long left dead and it may be that some of the heavy lightweights who have been masquerading under false colors for a long time will come out for bouts with Jack.

"Goodnight Corns! We Use 'Gets-It!'"

3 Drops in 2 Seconds. That's All "GETS-IT" Does the Rest. Never Fails.

"Really, I never could see how some few people use the most difficult and painful way they can find to get rid of corns. They'll wrap their toes up with bandages into a package that fills their shoes full of dirt and makes corns so painful they've got to walk sideways and wrinkle up their faces. Or they use solvers that eat right into the toe and make it raw and sore, or they'll use plasters that make the corns bulge, or pick and gouge at their corns and make the toes bleed. Funny, isn't it? "GETS-IT" is the simple, modern wonder for corns. Just put 3 drops on. It dries instantly. No pain, fuss or trouble. The corn, callus or wart loosens and comes off. Millions use nothing else. "GETS-IT" is sold and recommended by druggists everywhere, 25c a bottle, or sent on receipt of price, by E. Lawrence & Co., Chicago, Ill.

AEROPLANE MAIL SERVICE DELAYED

Washington, Sept. 21.—Uncle Sam's aeroplane mail route into Alaska, contracted for some time ago, cannot start because the European war is gobbling up all the aeroplanes as fast as they're made. Second Assistant Postmaster General Praeger, who is in charge of the new air route between Seward and Iditarod, Alaska, is in high hope that the route will be in operation by Spring, he said today. The air line will take the place of the old Malamute Trail and instead of listening for the postman's whistle as most persons do, the Alaskan folk will strain their ears for the whirl of a 200 horse power motor high up in the air.

Earl L. Byers, an Alaskan capitalist made a bid for the aeroplane service contract that was acceptable to the government; and he's trying hard to get the aeros.

PYTHIAN SOCIAL

Following the regular meeting of the Pythian Sisters held in the hall last evening, the families of the members joined in the social good time. There were about 40 present. For the Irish potatoe, which each of the members brought, fortunes were told by Miss Dessie Dugan. The potatoes were later given as a donation to someone. Later a buffet luncheon of hamburger sandwiches, coffee and pickle was served. Music was played during the evening.

PITCH-IN SUPPER

The company of young people entertained at the home of Miss Beulah Meredith last evening with a pitch-in supper spent an ideal evening together. The young ladies arranged the table, bearing a number of delicacies, in an attractive style. After enjoying the meal, the guests

MISSION CIRCLE

Aside from the delightful social time enjoyed, $25 to help cover the deficit in the state treasury of the missionary society was raised at the meeting of the Young Ladies Mission Circle at the Christian church last evening. It was in the form of a pitch-in and attended by about 40 members, who were seated at the long tables. Yellow predominated in the floral decorations which brightened the tables. A sumptuous dinner, in the preparation of which each of the members had aided, was served. Following the dinner, short and appropriate talks were made by Mrs. J. D. Case on the plans of the society for the coming year and by the Rev. C. M. Yocum. A general social good time ensued during the remainder of the evening.

Miss Florene Gronier and Miss Emma Casady had charge of the supper last evening. Mrs. Edward Jeffries of Connerville, a former member of the Circle, was among the guests.

The annual banquet of the Circle will be held some time during next month at the church.

PLAYLET GIVEN

The surprise promised at the meeting of the C. W. B. M. held at the home of Mrs. Joe Amos east of the city yesterday was well worth all the curiosity it had aroused for it turned out to be a very clever little playlet enacted by nine members of the society. "Sewing for the Heathen," with its comical plot, brought out incidents familiar to missionary societies. Each of the ladies took her part well and it was excellently given. The ladies taking parts were Mrs. Austin Frazee, Mrs. Ira Clawson, Mrs. Emma Talbert, Miss Emma Casady, Mrs. Ella Worsham, Mrs. Earl Moore, Mrs. Joe Amos, Mrs. Jake Parrish and Mrs. Ezra Hinkle.

A short business session preceded the playlet, during which Mrs. Wilford Grindle gave the annual report of the work of the society. The latter part of the afternoon was occupied with the social hour during which a delicious luncheon was served. The hostesses at this time were the out-going and in-coming officers of the society. Over one hundred ladies were present for the afternoon.

DRAMATIC CLUB

The interest centered about the organization of a Dramatic Club for Rushville was clearly shown by the excellent attendance at the meeting held last evening in the Graham building. With the members who tried out for membership and the charter members of the organization, there will be over 30 members to start out the year, carrying out the plans for an interesting year of work for the club. Earl Mariatt was elected as president of the organization and the other officers are: secretary, Duane Reed; vice-president, Tom Saunders; and treasurer, Miss Josephine Kelly.

Plans are on foot to give a play during centennial week at the Graham Annex. The play is to be made up of three one-act playlets, varying in nature from the dramatic to the comic. Practically the entire active membership is to take part in these playlets. Rehearsals were set for the near future, to start work. Prof. A. J. Beriault will be present to coach at the rehearsals. He also presided at the meeting last evening.

There are two classes of members, active and inactive. Included in the former, who will take part in the plays given both in meetings and publicly, are the Misses Esther Black, Mary Williams, Myrtle Foulon, Hannah Morris, Alma Green, Mary Harrold, Josephine Kelly, Frances Frazee, Kathryn Wooden, Naomi Craig, Louise Poe, Aesah Retherford, Dorothy Thomas, Mr. and Mrs. Francis Moor, and Dwight VanO-dol, Harry Schmalzel, Robert Vredenburg, Lester Coons, Clarence E. Parks, Denning Havens, Tom Saunders, Norman Reed, and Duane Reed. The inactive members are the Misses Helen Black, Letha Denny, Kate Dennis, Helen Scudder, Jeanette Clark, Mary Louise Bliss, Matheny, and Bryon Cowing and Earl Mariatt.

THOMPSON-ELWELL

Pink and white roses used in profusion added to the beauty of the new home of the bride and bridegroom, gave a lovely background for the wedding which was solemnized last evening when Miss Loraine Thompson, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. S. Thompson of Falmouth, and Ralph Elwell, son of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Elwell of Raleigh, were united in marriage. There ceremony was performed at eight o'clock, with the Rev. G. F. Powers of the Christian church of Fairview officiating. The ring ceremony was used.

The entire lower floor of the house which is situated three miles north of Falmouth and which has just been completed, was converted into

Says Glass of Hot Water Before Breakfast Washes Poison From System.

Physicians the world over recommend the inside bath, claiming this is of vastly more importance than outside cleanliness, because the skin pores do not absorb impurities into the blood, causing ill health, while the pores in the ten yards of bowels do.

Men and women are urged to drink each morning, before breakfast a glass of hot water with a teaspoonful of limestone phosphate in it, as a harmless means of helping to wash from the stomach, liver, kidneys and bowels the previous day's indigestible material, poisons, sour bile and toxins, thus cleansing, sweetening and purifying the entire alimentary canal before putting more food into the stomach.

Just as soap and hot water cleanse and freshen the skin, so hot water and limestone phosphate act on the eliminative organs.

Those who wake up with bad breath, coated tongue, nasty taste or have a dull, aching head, sallow complexion, acid stomach; others who are subject to bilious attacks or constipation, should obtain a quarter pound of limestone phosphate at the drug store. This will cost very little, but is sufficient to demonstrate the value of inside bathing. Those who continue it each morning, are assured of pronounced results, both in regard to health and appearance.

ADDITIONAL SOCIETY

tiful soprano voice. Miss Miriam Frye, whose dress was a beautiful white silk trimmed in pale shades of blue and pink, played the Lohengrin wedding march as the wedding party came down the long stairs.

Miss Frances Shera of Laure acted as maid of honor. She was lovely in a pink satin with a cream net over-drape. She carried a huge bouquet of pale pink roses and wore pink slippers to match. Dr. Herman Smelser of Connersville was best man. They were followed by the bride, a beautiful girl, who wore a white pussy willow taffeta, draped with white net and lace, which was caught with pearl ornaments. The veil, caught low with a pearl ornament, fell about her gown which was made full. She carried a graceful shower bouquet of bride's roses.

During the ceremony, the couple stood in front of a bank of palm and ferns. Immediately following Mrs. Baker sang "Because."

An informal reception followed when congratulations were received. Refreshments, carrying out the color scheme of pink and white in the ices and confections were served at this time. Huge baskets of rose decorated the dining room. A number of out-of-town guests were among the hundred guests. The included Mr. and Mrs. E. B. Hood and daughter, Edna, Ivan Bullard, Mrs. B. R. Prather, Mr. and Mrs. Stan Waney, Mr. and Mrs. Ber Waney, all of Indianapolis; Mr. and Mrs. Barrows, Mr. and Mrs. Gu McClanahan, Mr. and Mrs. L. I. Breadus and daughter, Merle, and Mr. and Mrs. Hienamen of Connersville.

The bride and bridegroom have left for a short wedding trip to Detroit and other surrounding point after which they will live at their new home. Mr. Elwell is a prominent farmer. The bride's going-away suit was of copenhagen blue gabardine, with a picture hat of velvet to match.

The Royal Neighbors will meet Friday night at 7:30 o'clock for practice. All members of the degree and fancy teams are urged to be present.

The Rebekah social will be Friday night instead of this evening as was stated in the paper. After the meeting of the lodge, the members of the families are invited to join in the social good time which will take place to celebrate the 65th anniversary of the order. Every member is urged to attend.

FOR MISS BUELL

Miss Lena Buell was the guest of honor at the pretty little party given this afternoon by Mrs. Wil Dill at her home in North Morgan street. Pretty garden flowers, nasturtiums and asters graced the rooms where the ladies were seated to spend a social afternoon together over their needlework. A dainty repast was served late in the afternoon to the 45 guests, among whom were Miss Margaret Hook of Zanesville, Ohio, Mrs. R. C. Cravens and daughter, Miss Grace of Salina, Kan.

FOR MISS BLACKLIDGE

Miss Kathryn Blackledge of Metamora, who is visiting Mrs. Guy Gordon at her home in North Morgan street, is being honored with a number of social courtesies during her visit here. This afternoon, Mrs. William Gordon and Mrs. Guy Gordon entertained with an informal sewing party in her honor. Garden flowers were used in the rooms where the ladies were entertained. A delicious luncheon was served to the 18 guests.

Tomorrow, Mrs. Austin Frazee is entertaining with a family dinner in honor of Mrs. Blackledge.

MISSIONARY MEETING

The treatment of the North American Indians was the general subject of the meeting of the Missionary society of the United Presbyterian church held with Mrs. W. J. Waite yesterday afternoon. A business meeting followed the program. Dainty refreshments were served by the hostess. The program was composed of the following numbers: Devotional—Mrs. Aikin. "Out of the House of Bondage"—

Mrs. A. C. Brown.

"The Results of Educational Policy of Indians by the United States"—Mrs. William George.

The next meeting will be a business meeting at the home of Mrs. I. H. Elliott when officers will be elected.

Mr. and Mrs. Humphrey and son, Glen, of Columbia City were entertained Tuesday by Mrs. Jessie Richardson at her home in Fayette county. They are the guests of Mrs. Emma Smith of North Jackson street for several days.

FUSES FOR MARSHMALLOWS

Marshmallows as a confection, dipped in peppermint fondant, are a delightful after-dinner mint. A marshmallow dropped in a cupful of hot cocoa at the children's parties will please them better than whipped cream, and is so easy to do.

A marshmallow placed on salted wafers, the small, round ones, and put in the oven to brown, makes most attractive marguerites.

Marshmallows cut in quarters with sharp shears and mixed with pineapple and whipped, sweetened, flavored cream, and served in sherbert glasses, is a dainty dessert.

A most delightful fruit salad may be made with pineapple, strawberries, marshmallows, and two or three tablespoonfuls of a good boiled salad dressing stirred into a cupful of whipped cream. Serve very cold in a pretty glass dish.

Marshmallows cut up and added to the boiled frosting while it is hot is a favorite filling for a cake as well as a good icing.

MARSHMALLOW PASTE.

Put a fourth of a cupful of sugar and the same amount of milk in a saucepan, heat slowly to the boiling point, and boil six minutes. Cut a fourth of a pound of marshmallows in pieces and melt in a double boiler; add two tablespoonfuls of hot water and cook until the mixture is smooth; then add the hot sirup gradually, stirring constantly. Beat until cool enough to spread, then add a half teaspoonful of vanilla. Use either for filling or frosting.

IN INDIANA TODAY.

Huntingburg—Dubois county today fittingly celebrated the centennial anniversary of the state.

Huntington—Edward C. Toner of Anderson, former state chairman of the progressive party, acted as the forerunner of Charles E. Hughes, when he delivered a talk today from the platform, on which Governor Hughes will stand.

Martinsville—Veterans and sailors of the White Soldiers and Sailors Association met here today in their annual reunion. The visitors were entertained at dinner and they were given an auto ride.

Washington—Col. V. V. Williams, department manager of the G. A. R., delivered an address before the reunion of old soldiers, held here today.

New Albany—More than 1000 persons participated in the Floyd county centennial celebration, which was held in a natural amphitheater on the banks of Silver Creek today.

Terre Haute—Members of the local Chamber of Commerce numbering 200 spent today visiting thirteen surrounding towns to create a more intimate business relationship with Terre Haute.

Hartford City—The Blackford County Veterans Association assembled at the Christian church here today in annual reunion.

A DEPENDABLE DRUG STORE

It has been my aim for the past 30 years to run this kind of a DRUG STORE.

Purest drugs that do for nature what nature fails to do for itself. We never substitute and always keep a fresh stock and charge no more for the best.

The best place in the City to get a nice cool drink, but not the kind that will make the children run from you when you come home. If you have not tried our soda, believe me, you have been missing a good thing.

HELLO GIRL HAS SOME EXPERIENCE IN 24 YEARS SERVICE.

Columbus, Ohio, Sept. 21.—Two million, four hundred thousand conversations on love, business, gossip and whatnot is the record today of Miss Nell Taylor in the 24 years' continuous service as a hello girl here.

The first eight years she spent at the switchboard handling calls at the rate of 1,000 a day. She spent another eight years as supervisor, answering foolish questions.

"Will you marry me?", she says, is the silliest and most frequent question asked. She still is single and glad of it.

When she started to work 24 years ago Miss Taylor was 15. There were only 1550 telephones in Columbus then, as compared to 45,000 today.

Lafayette Crowd is Enthusiastic in Cheering Condemnation of

(U. P. Staff Correspondent.)

Delphi, Ind., Sept. 21.—At least
one thousand persons got a new bit
of attack on the Democrats from Republican Nominee Hughes here
today.

"As I was going through Lafayette," he said, "I saw a campaign
our friends of the other side and
which bore the statement, 'No idle
men. Plenty of work. A full dinner
ordinary tribute to the memories of American voters. How was it in 1914 and the early part of 1915 after the passage of the Underwood
bill? Were there then full dinner
employed men in the city of New York alone!"

(By United Press.)

Lafayette, Ind., Sept. 21.—Seven
thousand people packed the streets
in front of the Lincoln club here
today to hear Republican Nominee Hughes expound the doctrine of
arose to speak to several hundred
at Monon who gave him a loud welcome to the Hoosier state.

The nominee's voice was just a trifle hoarse today after the exertions of yesterday's campaigning in Wisconsin and he prefaced his
speeches with the explanation that
he could.

"We want to prepare for our own
peace and security," he said at Monon. "We want to protect American labor and American stand-
governmental power in adjusting our
demands of labor that are just and
reasonable. We want proper conditions of work at reasonable hours,
but we can not have any of these
perity in the country. You can not have stability and prosperity unless American products are protect-
paid much less wages than the
wages that are paid here. That is common sense. And in order that we should properly secure our prosperity, we must attend to the protection of American working men."

particularly enthusiastic in cheering Hughes' criticism of the Adam-
son eight-hour law and again when

HUGHES STARTS INDIANA TOUR

IS AT RICHMOND TONIGHT

First Stop at Monon This Morning
at 8:30—Fort Wayne Meeting
a Big One.

Indianapolis, Ind., Sept. 21.—
Charles E. Hughes, Republican nominee for president, entered Indiana,
the chief battle ground of the campaign, today, resolved to do his part
in an attempt to swing the Hoosier
state into the Republican fold.

Speaking first at Monon at 8:30
a. m., the candidate spoke in turn
at Lafayette, Delphi, Loganport, Perrin, Wabash, and Huntington. At 3:15 p. m. he was to speak at Ft.
Wayne from which city he was to
start southward, taking in Decatur, Portland, Winchester, and making
his final speech of the day at Richmond at 8 o'clock tonight.

The meeting of Ft. Wayne was expected to be the largest meeting
of the day, though the ones at Lo-
ganport, Lafayette and Wabash
today were of the most enthusiastic
variety. The rally at Richmond to-
Buckeyes, is expected to fill to overflowing that city's large Coliseum.
At Ft. Wayne the Governor was
to speak at the New Palace theater,
an open air affair having been abandoned because of the weather risk.
Because of the short stay in Ft.
Wayne no auto parade was to be attempted, but it was planned to rush
the candidate to the theater at top
addressed at the Pennsylvania station in Fort Wayne.

At Richmond tonight the candidate will be in the county which
represented by a progressive in the
last session of the state legislature.
Plans have been made there to make
to prove that the progressive stronghold can outdo rockribbed republican cities in welcoming the republican candidate.

American rights as to lives, property and commerce from all nations.

His speech followed the same general lines of previous addresses. After his speech here the candidate
shook hands at an improvised reception, standing at one door while Mrs.
Hughes stood and shook hands at
the other door.

Hughes was in fine fettle, patting
babies on the cheek and otherwise
making himself "solid."

The Rev. D. Ira Lambert, who has just returned from Cincinnati where
he was called on account of the serious illness of his wife, reports that she is much better and considered to be out of danger.

J. B. Smelser has sold his eighty-acre farm northeast of Rushville to Clifford Travis of near Henderson
for $140 an acre.

—Miss Margaret Doyle has re-
Connersville.

STRIKE GROWING SERIOUS

Walkout of 500,000 Workers in New

(By United Press.)

New York, Sept. 21.—New York's
protracted traction strike situation
entered a serious phase today.

The last day which the labor leaders have allotted the traction companies to accept the proposals of Mayor Mitchell for further negotiations, was ushered in with increasing violence and with no sign of waver-ing by either side. Unless their demands are met union organizers are
city, a sympathetic strike of 500,000
men.

WILL DETERMINE NUMBER TO ATTEND

Uniform Rank, K. of P. Will Meet Tonight to Make Arrange-

The Uniform Rank, Knights of Pythias will meet tonight at which time it will be determined how many
from the local company will participate in the fraternal day celebration to be held in Indianapolis in connection with the state centennial.
members from the company here will go to Indianapolis.

form rank companies will establish
camp at the state fair grounds on Saturday evening, September 30.
The encampment would continue
Saturday night, Sunday and Monday. The celebration will take place on Monday. Sunday dinner
and supper and Monday breakfast
will be served on the grounds free

Given Suspended Sentences in Indianapolis.

What was virtually an acquittal
for the two Rushville boys who were
alleged to be implicated in the Davis
afternoon by Judge Collins in the Marion county criminal court in Indianapolis.

Rush county people are familiar with the activities of the Davis gang,
some members of which have already been sentenced to prison. The two Rushville boys have stoutly asserted from the first that they were
not guilty though they were familiar with the methods used.

An agreement was reported to have been reached whereby Hite and Flodder were given suspended sentences. They were both convinced that they could win the case, but by
the action that was taken the costs

POLIO CASES DEVELOP

(By United Press.)
Adrian, Mich., Sept. 21.—The Adrian public schools were ordered
cases of infantile paralysis caused
the action.

Fred Bell of Union township sold 394 hogs yesterday at 11 cents a pound with an average of 284
pounds.

Mob at Olathe, Kan., Takes Mur-derer From Jail

(By United Press.)

Olathe, Kan., Sept. 21.—Storming
the jail, fifty armed men lynched
Bert Dudley, avenging the brutal
murder of Mr. and Mrs. Henry Miller, for which he was convicted Tuesday.

The mob aroused Sheriff Carroll
about midnight and demanded that Dudley be released to them. The sheriff refused.

him."

The men cut loose with a volley of

Delegation Will go Richmond in Machines Tonight to Hear
Hughes Speak

Will M. Sparks, John Tittsworth,
Charles A. Frazee, Jesse Pugh and Albert L. Winslow will go to Richmond tonight for the Hughes meeting.

Judge D. W. Comstock will preside at the meeting and after a brief address will introduce James Bingham, former attorney general
of Indiana, who will entertain the crowd until the arrival of Mr. Hughes.

The Hughes special train is due
in Richmond at 8:25 o'clock and it will be taken immediately to the coliseum for his address.

Many local republicans will go
to Indianapolis Saturday night for

SEVERAL CASES ARE DISPOSED OF

Suit Which Was Outgrowth of Pav-
and Costs Paid.

SURETY CO. GETS JUDGMENT

Several suits were disposed of in
Estes V. Bergen and Everett E.
Jeffery against Melvina Shropshire
to foreclose an assessment was dismissed and the costs paid. This was one of ten suits growing out of the
paving of West Second street last summer. The property owners did
not pay the assessments and the construction company filed suit to collect.

Judge Sparks heard the divorce
suit of Dora E. Carpenter against Owen Carpenter this morning and
took the case under advisement.
Mrs. Carpenter alleged cruel and inhuman treatment.

Judgment for $70.21 was rendered
the Equitable Surety company. The
John A. Knecht and Edmund Gartin
against S. H. Colter, on a note demanding $350 was dismissed and the
costs paid.

ALLIES ADVANCE 3 MILES

London, Sept. 21.—Despite the most vicious attacks delivered by the Bulgars, French forces operating on the allied left wing in the Balkans have advanced nearly three miles toward hill 1550, taking 50 prisoners. It was officially announced today.

They May be Purchased at Any
Store and Will be Given Away
by Some Merchants

—Baby and Doll Parade

Votes for the Centennial Queen
were placed on sale today at practically all of the stores in the business district.

About two weeks remain for the
keen competition because of the
prize of fifty dollars which is offered. Twenty-five dollars in gold
having the second highest number of votes. The third prize is ten dollars.

A majority of the merchants will
give one vote with each cash purchase of twenty cents. Those who are interested in the contest and
have already picked their favorites
are expected to ask for the votes.
They may be purchased at any store
for a fourth of a cent each. The
votes are printed in different values
as high as a dollar.

A. Bogue, chairman of the executive committee, and Walter Eas-
ley, chairman of the concessions
committee, obtained another free
attraction at Indianapolis yesterday, making three in all which have been arranged for.

McElroy and Bernardo's "Troubles in Crownland." It is a silent comedy
from here saw it and declare it to be of exceptional merit. The attraction is termed a trick house
act.

The committee has been announced for the baby and doll parade on Tuesday afternoon of the Centennial, Home Coming and Fall Festival, which will take place the week of October 9. Mrs. Owen Kincaid is chairman of the committee, and the remainder have been named as follows:

Mrs. Douglas Morris, Mrs. F. G.
Hackleman, Mrs. John Kiplinger,
Mrs. Rich Reed, Mrs. Clarence
Henrietta Coleman and Mrs. Harry
Armstrong.

The committee will meet in the court house next Saturday afternoon at three o'clock and all women
interested in the parade are asked to be present at that time. Prizes amounting to $17.50 will be awarded in the baby parade and the
prizes in the doll parade total $8.50.

Plans were hurried along today
so as to get the decorative arches
up in the next few days. They will be covered with muslin and elab-
plan to decorate the arches with
corn had to be abandoned because
the early frost put the corn in such
condition that it could not be used.

Anderson's House

The home of George Anderson,
colored, in East Seventh street was
at nine-thirty o'clock. The fire was caused by a defective flue and for
the most part was confined to the roof. The fire was very stubborn and gave the department considerable trouble. There was no insurance and the loss is small because
the house was not very valuable. It was the second run of the day for
the fire department.

SAYS GOODRICH HAS WRONG DOPE

J. A. M. Adair Declares Local Men

Democratic Candidate for Governor
Makes Appeal for the Progressive Vote

John A. M. Adair, Democratic
candidate for governor, in his address last night closing his day's campaign in this county, made a plea for the Progressive vote,
branded the Republican charge of
extravagance in state affairs as
President Wilson. A crowd of 800
or 1,000 people heard the candidate.

During the course of his remarks
Mr. Adair took occasion to make fun at James E. Watson and point out two local men, Joseph L. Cowing
and Rush G. Budd, whom claimed
have been insulted by James G.
Goodrich, Republican candidate governor, in charging waste in the administration of state institutions.
Mr. Cowing is a member of the board of trustees of the East Indian asylum and Mr. Budd is a member of the board of trustees of the Epileptic Village at Newcastle. In
referring to Mr. Budd, Mr. Adair
had to ask his name. From all indications this part of his speech
had been framed by some local Democrats.

In opening his address he told of his many victories in the Eighth district while running for congress and
declared that it was only natural
he should feel kindly towards Republicans because they were largely instrumental in securing his election since the Eighth district is normally Republican. The first part of his speech was devoted to Progressives. He told of the trouble in the Republican party and why there was a Progressive party.

"We Democrats have passed practically every law the Progressives demanded," said Mr. Adair. "We have given you all the legislation
that you were unable to get under
you Progressives can do either of
two things—vote the Progressive ticket or the Democrat ticket. I do not see how you can go back to the Republican party where they have
the same leaders as in 1912 and
stand for the same things now as
then.

and look at this thing together. How did the Democratic party get into
power? The party was always considered a minority party and it was through the help of the Republicans
that we got into power."

At this time he took occasion to "run" the so called "interests," declaring that the Democrats still believed in equal rights for all and special privilege for none.

"It is in Indiana we have been in power eight years," he said. "It is
the rule that you never hear people
talk about anything that is good.
For this reason you have never heard anyone say anything about
the administration of Governor Ras-
ton. Even the keynote speech of Judge Quincy Myers failed to mention the Ralston administration,
showing that the Republicans themselves had heard nothing bad concerning it. When did you ever find a state administration so good that no one can criticize it?"

"They are now going about the state charging extravagance and
and untrue. They are so eager to hold office that they go crying about
the state trying to make the peo-

Amusements

The Com will show the first chapter of the "Panic" serial, "Who's Guilty?" for the first picture tonight. This episode is entitled "The Secret Alarm." The series is composed of fifteen gripping episodes and each tells a complete story. The second picture tonight is a comedy "Living Them Fast." The last is a picture of current events as shown in "Panic News." Tomorrow the five act drama "Two Men of Sand" will be shown. It is taken from that famous novel of the same name and is said to be a leading picture.

The Mystic offers the two reel drama "The Standee" for the first picture of tonight's program. The second is a western drama "The Higher Voice." Florence Lawrence is featured in this offer. The last is a comedy entitled "Little Gains of Race." Tomorrow, matinee and night the comedy "Marv's Lamb" in which Richard Carle is featured will be shown. It is said to be a fine comedy and was reproduced from the stage play of the same name in which Mr. Carle appeared for several seasons.

The Palace offers the next chapter of "World Romance" for the first picture tonight. Miss Billie Burke is featured as usual. The second picture is a drama of mili-

extravagance in the conduct of state institutions when he well knows that the boards of these institutions are conducted by nonpartisan members. He has insulted both the Republican and Democratic members of these boards. Your fellow citizen Joseph L. Cowing, a member of the board at East Haven, is included in this list. Did you ever hear of Joseph L. Cowing being extravagant in the conduct of his own business affairs or does Mr. Cowing live an extravagant life here in Nashville where you all know him? There is yet another one of your citizens who has been insulted by Mr. Goodrich. I refer to Rush G. Budd, a member of the board of trustees at the Epileptic Village. You know Mr. Budd, as you know Mr. Cowing and you can be the judge.

"I want to be the next governor of Indiana, but if I have to go over the state misrepresenting these things I will never be governor. I repeat there has been no waste or extravagance in the conduct of the state's affairs. We admit that we created more offices because we have executed legislation that the people were demanding."

From this brief discourse of state issues, Mr. Adair jumped to national issues. He had a word of praise for President Wilson and declared that he has kept us at peace. He declared that the "hope of the world and the hope of Democracy is resting on America and in Woodrow Wilson that hope will be realized."

Mr. Adair then told of the passage of his pension law giving the old soldiers a dollar a day pension and told of other legislation passed by the Democrats. In touching on present conditions Mr. Adair said:

"It was said that we would close the factories and throw men out of work by the passage by our tariff law. Instead of that you have the greatest prosperity in the history of the country. But my good friend Watson says, 'wait until the war is over.' With only old men and boys left in Europe why should we not continue our present prosperity after the war."

"Did you ever hear Jim Watson make a Fourth of July speech? If you never did you get him to give one here and I will come down. He can give the best Fourth of July speech I ever heard. His Fourth of July speeches are simply great. In them we have the greatest country on earth. But now that a campaign is on my friend paints a vivid picture. I might believe his Fourth of July speeches, but just before election I would not like to say what I think of them. The Republicans have no issue and no candidate who can appeal to the people."

The speaker then up held President Wilson's Mexican policy and European policies. Reference was made to the passage of the currency law and other Democratic measures. Mr. Adair was introduced by Howard E. Barrett.

TODAY'S HOOSIER ODDITY.
Hartford City, Ind., Sept. 21.

Ben Nottingham, living four miles northwest of here, who won renown as exhibitor of the two headed pig at the last fall festival is now exhibiting a two headed blue racer snake which he recently killed. The heads are located at either end of the reptile.

From this brief discourse of state issues, Mr. Adair jumped to national issues. He had a word of praise for President Wilson and declared that he has kept us at peace. He declared that the "hope of the world and the hope of Democracy is resting on America and in Woodrow Wilson that hope will be realized."

Mr. Adair then told of the passage of his pension law giving the old soldiers a dollar a day pension and told of other legislation passed by the Democrats. In touching on present conditions Mr. Adair said:

"It was said that we would close the factories and throw men out of work by the passage by our tariff law. Instead of that you have the greatest prosperity in the history of the country. But my good friend Watson says, 'wait until the war is over.' With only old men and boys left in Europe why should we not continue our present prosperity after the war."

"Did you ever hear Jim Watson make a Fourth of July speech? If you never did you get him to give one here and I will come down. He can give the best Fourth of July speech I ever heard. His Fourth of July speeches are simply great. In them we have the greatest country on earth. But now that a campaign is on my friend paints a vivid picture. I might believe his Fourth of July speeches, but just before election I would not like to say what I think of them. The Republicans have no issue and no candidate who can appeal to the people."

The speaker then up held President Wilson's Mexican policy and European policies. Reference was made to the passage of the currency law and other Democratic measures. Mr. Adair was introduced by Howard E. Barrett.

SEPTEMBER MORN.

Hammond, Ind., Sept. 21.
A woman, a la September morn, was hanging her washing on a line to dry. She was sighted by neighbors and a policeman was called. He started to tell her what to do wrapping a sheet about her person, she defied. With many blushes, he ordered her to go into the house and she complied.

in clothes for men and young men

There is that about "High Art Clothes" which takes them out of the dull monotony of the "just clothes" class and gives them a personality of their own.

Their designer follows no precedents other than good taste and the "High Art" models for Fall and Winter testify to his ability to put life into his designs.

These clothes will make you a better dressed man—and at their price they challenge the field.

See them—feel the comfort of them and you will wear

Escape TOOTH Troubles

—by keeping your teeth REALLY CLEAN.
"But," you say, "I brush my teeth regularly, yet they decay." Yes, you brush them, but do you REALLY CLEAN them? Tonight, after brushing your teeth, examine them closely. You will likely find an accumulation of tartar on the enamel and bits of food deposit hiding in the crevices.

Decay, as well as the dangerous gum disease called Pyorrhea, usually develops only in the mouth where germ-laden tartar is present. SENRECO, the formula of a dental specialist, keeps the teeth REALLY CLEAN. It embodies specially prepared soluble granules unusually effective in cleaning away food deposits. Moreover, it is particularly destructive to the germ of Pyorrhea. Go to your dealer today and get a tube of Senreco—keep your teeth REALLY CLEAN and protect yourself against Pyorrhea and decay. Send 4c to Senreco, 304 Walnut St., Cincinnati, Ohio, for liberal-sized trial package.

Theodore Roosevelt has made public a letter written by him to Henry Reuter Dahl, the expert on naval affairs, in which Mr. Roosevelt declares that Reuter Dahl has made it perfectly plain that Admiral Mayo advised President Wilson and Secretary Daniels of the peril to which Americans were exposed in Tampico and that, with full knowledge of this peril, Messrs. Wilson and Daniels peremptorily instructed Mayo to withdraw, leaving American men, women and children to their fate; that Mayo put out to sea, and then received the emphatic protest of the American consul and refused to proceed but that the President and Daniels were insistent; that Mayo was then advised by the Captain of a British ship that it was too late and that his return would aggravate the situation and that the Americans were rescued from the Mexican mob by the British and German naval ships. "You have made your case perfectly clear," writes Mr. Roosevelt. "As you say in your letter, you have furnished complete proof that when the Americans were in danger at Tampico they were deliberately abandoned by the orders of Mr. Wilson and that their lives were saved under foreign flags. By no possibility can President Wilson and Secretary Daniels clear themselves from guilt in the transaction. The facts are indisputable." Washington dispatches, referring to Mr. Roosevelt's letter, say that each of the many excuses which have been made by Daniels is absurd; according to naval experts, and that the real reason Mayo's ship was ordered away was that Mr. Wilson feared their presence at Tampico would irritate the Mexicans.

Before he was elected, Woodrow Wilson announced that his administration would be characterized by "pitiless publicity." Since his inauguration even normal publicity has given place to political expediency. The latest instance of this is the absolute refusal of the War Department to reveal the facts regarding the attack on San Ignacio, Tex., by Mexican troops, presumably Carranzistas. Army officers at the Department explain that they are under pre-emptory orders not to disclose the facts and, as everyone knows, those orders come from President Wilson himself. The official report of the affair, as made by the Carranzista general to his headquarters, has been published in the Mexican press. It declares that the Americans, of the Ninth Regiment were routed by a combined attack of cavalry, approaching from the West, and infantry, from the South, that there was furious fighting for two hours, when the Americans were "compelled to fly." He concludes; "On the field were abandoned great numbers of dead and wounded and an immense booty, consisting of 150 rifles, 3,000 cartridges, horses, saddles, munitions of war and provisions." The Wilson administration successfully suppressed the facts regarding this encounter until the Conference he is conducting at New London, and the futility of looking to Carranza for protection of the Mexican border.

Some people are always happy, some are constitutionally miserable, while others have a difficult time deciding which they prefer.

Drinks You Will Enjoy

A change of beverage from time to time is enjoyable and beneficial as well.

The flavor of our Coffee is proverbial. We especially recommend our San Marto brand; we believe it is the best 30 cent coffee to be found anywhere. Our Vacuum Improved Coffee is the kind you can drink when other coffee don't agree with you. All injurious parts are removed by the vacuum process—two grades, 35c and 45c per pound. We have Coffee as low as 15c per pound.

In our Royal Garden Teas you will find a suggestion of oriental flavor and fragrance. All varieties in three grades—60c, 80c and $1.00 per pound.

There is health in every cup of Cocoa or Chocolate. Children thrive on them because they are nourishing; grown folks like them because of their delicate flavor.

We watch with great care the quality of our Coffee, Tea and Cocoa. Purer goods than we sell cannot be had.

Claimant of Welterweight Title Appears to be the Real Leader of This Division.

Plenty of Action Promised For Coming Winter—Now Hard to Get Opponents For Him.

BY HAMILTON.

New York, Sept. 21.—Since Jack Britton has laid claim to the welterweight title, so long left to be scrambled for, the class seems to have a worthy ruler for the first time since it was vacated by Jimmy Clabby when he graduated into the middleweight ranks.

Britton's most recent, victory in which he gave Joe Welling of Chicago a beating at Buffalo, was called by critics at the ringside. Britton's most brilliant performance. They predicted for him the most successful season of his career and already Dan Morgan has arranged a number of bouts for his champion.

Britton for a long time was a stumbling block in the path of aspiring lightweights and when he announced some time ago he had stepped into the welterweight class there was a revival of interest in the 142-pounders. Immediately opponents were dug up for him. Ted Lewis, the British whirlwind, is the only boxer who has defeated Britton in that time, but Britton promises to wipe out that stain if he is given a chance this winter. Lewis twice won from Britton on points last winter.

Lewis, undoubtedly, is the only boxer of any reputation in the welter class who has a chance with Britton, unless one admits that Willie Ritchie means to try a comeback. Out west they have a young Mexican, Jack Torres, who has proved a great fighter, but he hasn't shown the fighting heart and until he does there is little prospect that he will get a chance.

With Britton riding at the head of the welters the winter promises to see some action in the class so long left dead and it may be that some of the heavy lightweights who have been masquerading under false colors for a long time will come out for bouts with Jack.

3 Drops in 2 Seconds. That's All. "GETS-IT" Does the Best. Never Fails.

"Really, I never could see how some few people use the most difficult and painful way they can find to get rid of corns. They'll wrap their toes up with bandages into a package that fills their shoes full of feet and makes corns so painful they've got to walk sideways and wrinkle up their faces. Or they use salves that eat right into the toe and make it raw and sore, or they'll use plasters that make the corns bulge, or pick and gouge at their corns and make the toes bleed. Turn, isn't it? 'GETS-IT' is the simple, modern wonder for corns. Just put 3 drops on. It dries instantly. No pain, fuss or trouble. The corn, callus or wart loosens and comes off. Millions use nothing else."

"GETS-IT" is sold and recommended by druggists everywhere, 25c a bottle, or sent on receipt of price, by E. Lawrence & Co., Chicago, Ill. Sold in Nashville and recommended as the world's best corn remedy by Hargrove & Mullin.

AEROPLANE MAIL SERVICE DELAYED

(By United Press.)
Washington, Sept. 21.—Uncle Sam's aeroplane mail route into Alaska, contracted for some time ago, cannot start because the European war is gobbling up all the aeroplanes as fast as they're made.

Second Assistant Postmaster General Praeger, who is in charge of the new air route between Seward and Iditarod, Alaska, is in high hope that the route will be in operation by Spring, he said today. The air line will take the place of the old Malamute Trail and instead of listening for the postman's whistle as most persons do, the Alaskan folk will strain their ears for the whirl of a 200 horse power motor high up in the air.

Earl L. Byers, an Alaskan capitalist made a bid for the aeroplane service contract that was acceptable to the government; and he's trying hard to get the aeroplanes.

N. B. C. GRAHAM CRACKERS

You don't have to coax the children to eat plenty of N. B. C. Graham Crackers. These are not only rich in the nourishment that builds bone and muscle, but their tempting taste makes the little appetites hungry for more.

N. B. C. Graham Crackers added an individuality and nut-like flavor that other graham crackers lacked. This makes them an almost universally popular article of everyday diet.

the Heathen," with its comical plot, brought out incidents familiar to missionary societies. Each of the ladies took her part well and it was excellently given. The ladies taking parts were Mrs. Austin Frazee, Mrs. Ira Clawson, Mrs. Emma Talbert, Miss Emma Casady, Mrs. Ella Worsham, Mrs. Earl Moore, Mrs. Joe Amos, Mrs. Jake Parrish and Mrs. Ezra Hinkle.

A short business session preceded the playlet, during which Mrs. Wilford Grindle gave the annual report of the work of the society. The latter part of the afternoon was occupied with the social hour during which a delicious luncheon was served. The hostesses at this time were the out-going and in-coming officers of the society. Over one hundred ladies were present for the afternoon.

DRAMATIC CLUB

The interest centered about the organization of a Dramatic Club for Rushville was clearly shown by the excellent attendance at the meeting held last evening in the Graham building. With the members who tried out for membership and the charter members of the organization, there will be over 30 members to start out the year, carrying out the plans for an interesting year of work for the club. Earl Marlatt was elected as president of the organization and the other officers are: secretary, Duane Reed; vice-president, Tom Saunders; and treasurer, Miss Josephine Kelly.

Plans are on foot to give a play during centennial week at the Graham Annex. The play is to be made up of three one-act playlets, varying in nature from the dramatic to the comic. Practically the entire active membership is to take part in these playlets. Rehearsals were set for the near future, to start work. Prof. A. J. Beriault will be present to coach at the rehearsals. He also presided at the meeting last evening.

There are two classes of members, active and inactive. Included in the former, who will take part in the plays given both in meetings and publicly, are the Misses Esther Black, Mary Williams, Myrtle Eglon, Hannah Morris, Alma Green, Mary Harrold, Josephine Kelly, Frances Frazee, Kathryn Wooden, Naomi Craig, Louise Poe, Aesah Retherford, Dorothy Thomas, Mr. and Mrs. Francis Moor, and Dwight VanO-dol, Harry Schmalzel, Robert Vredenburg, Lester Coons, Clarence E. Parks, Denning Havens, Tom Saunders, Norman Reed, and Duane Reed. The inactive members are the Misses Helen Black, Letha Denny, Kate Dennis, Helen Seudder, Jeanette Clark, Mary Louise Bliss, Matheny, and Bryon Cowing and Earl Marlatt.

THOMPSON-ELWELL

Pink and white roses used in profusion added to the beauty of the new home of the bride and bridegroom, gave a lovely background for the wedding which was solemnized last evening when Miss Loraine Thompson, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. S. Thompson of Falmouth, and Ralph Elwell, son of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Elwell of Raleigh, were united in marriage. There ceremony was performed at eight o'clock, with the Rev. G. F. Powers of the Christian church of Fairview officiating. The ring ceremony was used.

The entire lower floor of the house which is situated three miles north of Falmouth and which has just been completed, was converted into

That Indispensable Tailored Suit for Fall

Knowing how little really good tailoring there is to be had, we have been very careful in choosing our tailored suits and coats. Just in this regard, we wish you would inspect our Woottex tailored suits.

Note, for example, that the lining of every Woottex garment is built separately, and then fitted into its garment, with interlinings at chest and back—preserving the smart appearance of the garment as long as it is worn.

The styles are quite distinctive, and the color range includes Hunter Green, Burgundy, Taupe, Ink-berry, Jaffre, Java Brown, Navy and Black. You will see here a larger choice than you might expect to find in any one store. And not only suits, but coats—from the severest tailored models to rich dress effects in velour and plush. ¶ Those who have seen them, pronounce our showing of wool and silk dresses superb. Many of them are finding ready buyers. Do you not wish to be among those who are to have first choice of this exclusive showing? DON'T DELAY—Come Tomorrow.

PYTHIAN SOCIAL

Following the regular meeting of the Pythian Sisters held in the hall last evening, the families of the members joined in the social good time. There were about 40 present. For the Irish potatoe, which each of the members brought, fortunes were told by Miss Dossie Inagon. The potatoes were later given as a donation to someone. Later a buffet luncheon of hamburger sandwiches, coffee and pickle was served. Music was played during the evening.

PITCH-IN SUPPER

The company of young people entertained at the home of Miss Bernice Meredith last evening with a pitch-in supper spent an ideal evening together. The young ladies arranged the table, bearing a number of delicacies in an attractive style. After enjoying the meal, the guests

MISSION CIRCLE

Aside from the delightful social time enjoyed, $25 to help cover the deficit in the state treasury of the missionary society was raised at the meeting of the Young Ladies Mission Circle at the Christian church last evening. It was in the form of a pitch-in and attended by about 40 members, who were seated at the long tables. Yellow predominated in the floral decorations which brightened the tables. A sumptuous dinner, in the preparation of which each of the members had aided, was served. Following the dinner, short and appropriate talks were made by Mrs. J. D. Case on the plans of the society for the coming year and by the Rev. C. M. Yocum. A general social good time ensued during the remainder of the evening.

Miss Florene Gronier and Miss Emma Casady had charge of the supper last evening. Mrs. Edward Jeffries of Connersville, a former member of the Circle, was among the guests.

The annual banquet of the Circle will be held some time during next month at the church.

PLAYLET GIVEN

The surprise promised at the meeting of the C. W. B. M. held at the home of Mrs. Joe Amos east of the city yesterday was well worth all the curiosity it had aroused for it turned out to be a very clever little playlet enacted by nine members of the society. "Sewing for

Physicians the world over recommend the inside bath, claiming this is of vastly more importance than outside cleanliness, because the skin pores do not absorb impurities into the blood, causing ill health, while the pores in the ten yards of bowels do.

Men and women are urged to drink each morning, before breakfast a glass of hot water with a teaspoonful of limestone phosphate in it, as a harmless means of helping to wash from the stomach, liver, kidneys and bowels the previous day's indigestible material, poisons, sour bile and toxins, thus cleansing, sweetening and purifying the entire alimentary canal before putting more food into the stomach.

Just as soap and hot water cleanse and freshen the skin, so hot water and limestone phosphate act on the eliminative organs.

Those who wake up with bad breath, coated tongue, nasty taste or have a dull, aching head, sallow complexion, acid stomach; others who are subject to bilious attacks or constipation, should obtain a quarter pound of limestone phosphate at the drug store. This will cost very little, but is sufficient to demonstrate the value of inside bathing. Those who continue it each morning, are assured of pronounced results, both in regard to health and appearance. (Advertisement.)

tiful soprano voice. Miss Miriam Frye, whose dress was a beautiful white silk trimmed in pale shades of blue and pink, played the Lohengrin wedding march as the wedding party came down the long stairs.

Miss Frances Shera of Laure acted as maid of honor. She was lovely in a pink satin with a cream net over-drape. She carried a huge bouquet of pale pink roses and wore pink slippers to match. Dr. Herman Smelser of Connersville was best man. They were followed by the bride, a beautiful girl, who wore a white pussy willow taffeta, draped with white net and lace, which was caught with pearl ornaments. The veil, caught low with a pearl ornament, fell about her gown which was made full. She carried a graceful shower bouquet of bride's roses. During the ceremony, the couple stood in front of a bank of palm and ferns. Immediately following Mrs. Baker sang "Because."

An informal reception followed when congratulations were received. Refreshments, carrying out the color scheme of pink and white in the ices and confections were served at this time. Huge baskets of rose decorated the dining room. A number of out-of-town guests were among the hundred guests. They included Mr. and Mrs. E. B. Hood and daughter, Edna, Ivan Bullard, Mrs. B. R. Prather, Mr. and Mrs. Stan Waney, Mr. and Mrs. Ber Waney, all of Indianapolis; Mr. and Mrs. Barrows, Mr. and Mrs. Gu McClanahan, Mr. and Mrs. L. I. Broadus and daughter, Merle, and Mr. and Mrs. Hienamen of Connersville.

The bride and bridegroom have left for a short wedding trip to Detroit and other surrounding point after which they will live at their new home. Mr. Elwell is a prominent farmer. The bride's going-away suit was of copenhagen blue gabardine, with a picture hat of velvet to match.

The Rebekah social will be Friday night instead of this evening as was stated in the paper. After the meeting of the lodge, the members of the families are invited to join in the social good time which will take place to celebrate the 65th anniversary of the order. Every member is urged to attend.

FOR MISS BUELL

Miss Lena Buell was the guest of honor at the pretty little party given this afternoon by Mrs. Wil Dill at her home in North Morgan street. Pretty garden flowers, nasturtiums and asters graced the rooms where the ladies were seated to spend a social afternoon together over their needlework. A dainty repast was served late in the afternoon to the 45 guests, among whom were Miss Margaret Hook of Zanesville, Ohio, Mrs. R. O. Cravens and daughter, Miss Grace of Salina, Kan.

FOR MISS BLACKLIDGE

Miss Kathryn Blackledge of Metamora, who is visiting Mrs. Guy Gordon at her home in North Morgan street, is being honored with a number of social courtesies during her visit here. This afternoon, Mrs. William Gordon and Mrs. Guy Gordon entertained with an informal sewing party in her honor. Garden flowers were used in the rooms where the ladies were entertained. A delicious luncheon was served to the 18 guests.

Tomorrow, Mrs. Austin Frazier is entertaining with a family dinner in honor of Mrs. Blackledge.

MISSIONARY MEETING

The treatment of the North American Indians was the general subject of the meeting of the Missionary society of the United Presbyterian church held with Mrs. W. J. Waite yesterday afternoon. A business meeting followed the program. Dainty refreshments were served by the hostess. The program was composed of the following numbers: Devotional—Mrs. Aikin. "Out of the House of Bondage"

Mrs. A. C. Brown.
The Results of Educational Policy of Indians by the United States.
—Mrs. William George.
The next meeting will be a business meeting at the home of Mrs. I. H. Elliott when officers will be elected.

Mr. and Mrs. Pumphrey and son, Glen, of Columbia City were entertained Tuesday by Mrs. Jessie Richardson at her home in Fayette county. They are the guests of Mrs. Emma Smith of North Jackson street for several days.

FUSES FOR MARSHMALLOWS.
Marshmallows as a confection, dipped in peppermint fondant, are a delightful after-dinner mint. A marshmallow dropped in a cupful of hot cocoa at the children's parties will please them better than whipped cream, and is so easy to do.

A marshmallow placed on salted wafers, the small, round ones, and put in the oven to brown, makes most attractive marguerites. Marshmallows cut in quarters with sharp shears and mixed with pineapple and whipped, sweetened, flavored cream, and served in sherbert glasses, is a dainty dessert. A most delightful fruit salad may be made with pineapple, strawberries, marshmallows, and two or three tablespoonfuls of a good boiled salad dressing stirred into a cupful of whipped cream. Serve very cold in a pretty glass dish. Marshmallows cut up and added to the boiled frosting while it is hot is a favorite filling for a cake as well as a good icing.

Put a fourth of a cupful of sugar and the same amount of milk in a saucepan, heat slowly to the boiling point, and boil six minutes. Cut a fourth of a pound of marshmallows in pieces and melt in a double boiler; add two tablespoonfuls of hot water and cook until the mixture is smooth; then add the hot sirup gradually, stirring constantly. Beat until cool enough to spread, then add a half teaspoonful of vanilla. Use either for filling or frosting.

IN INDIANA TODAY.

Huntington—Edward C. Toner of Anderson, former state chairman of the progressive party, acted as the forerunner of Charles E. Hughes, when he delivered a talk today from the platform, on which Governor Hughes will stand.

Martinsville—Veterans and sailors of the White Soldiers and Sailors Association met here today in their annual reunion. The visitors were entertained at dinner and they were given an auto ride.

Washington—Col. V. V. Williams, department manager of the G. A. R. delivered an address before the reunion of old soldiers, held here today.

New Albany—More than 1000 persons participated in the Floyd county centennial celebration, which was held in a natural amphitheater on the banks of Silver Creek today.

Terre Haute—Members of the local Chamber of Commerce numbering 201 spent today visiting thirteen surrounding towns to create a more intimate business relationship with Terre Haute.

Hartford City—The Blackford County Veterans Association assembled at the Christian church here today in annual reunion.

HELLO GIRL HAS SOME EXPERIENCE IN 24 YEARS SERVICE.

Columbus, Ohio, Sept. 21.—Two million, four hundred thousand conversations on love, business, gossip and whatnot is the record today of Miss Nell Taylor in the 24 years' continuous service as a hello girl here.

The first eight years she spent at the switchboard handling calls at the rate of 1,000 a day. She spent another eight years as supervisor, answering foolish questions.

"Will you marry me?", she says, is the silliest and most frequent question asked. She still is single and glad of it.

When she started to work 24 years ago Miss Taylor was 15. There were only 1550 telephones in Columbus then, as compared to 45,000 today.

An exchange will be held in the Wiltse Five and Ten Cent store Saturday morning by the ladies of the Lookout society of the M. P. church of New Salem.
